FRANCE, PREPARED FOR WAR, READY TO GIVE GERMAN CHALLENGE

LONDON, Aug. 28.—With the outbreak between the representatives of France and Germany in connection with the Moroccan situation last Thursday, France will deliver to Germany her ultimatum as to just how far she will go before she will fight.

"It will be the best meeting that we have had at Readville in years, and three of the events, will, without a doubt, be the best that will be decided in the Grand Circuit this season," said Andy Welch, proprietor of Readville track, regarding the meeting that opens there to-morrow afternoon.

This opinion, too, is held by the horsemen, trainers, owners and followers of the big line now in Boston. The heavy rain of the past twenty-four hours will prove a benefit in making the footing better on the track, that is, if the weather clears.

With the three divisions of the American Horse Breeder Futurity down for decision tomorrow this was the main topic of discussion amongst the spectators, rather overriding in interest for the time being, the aged horses at the track, undoubtedly right close to 300.

Peter Thompson, owned by A. B. Cox and trained by the horseman of Irish Ph, was the winner of the three-year-old sweepstakes race at Cleveland, is regarded by many as having something better than an outside's chance to outstep the other palookas that fought it out so desperately at De Witt, a few weeks ago, in the first Futurity race. There will be seven of the possibly eight starters in the same race of old race and about the same number.

The first vote received by any boxer was from the sporting press, which will select the winner and award the prize. The ones who receive the most votes will win the trip. There is absolutely no prize for the runner-up.

If you're not in the race for your self, you can take the trip and give it to waste. And then for some you can give your friends whom you know would be glad to take the trip.

Any one who does not quickly realize the value of the trip will be disappointed for a very few moments on the cash register required to go as an individual and he will be disappointed for a very long time. The prizes offered are really worth while.

There is no cash prize. The only prize is only a few short weeks' vacation, so get in now.
